EMPEROR HOLDS CONFERENCE ON THE SITUATION

New Instructions Issued to the German and Austrian Foreign Secretaries

WIDESPREAD DEMAND FOR CONVENING OF REICHSTAG

British and Italians Continue to Repulse Enemy Attacks On Various Sectors

(Compiled from A. P. Dispatches.)

A crisis is nearing in the Russo-German peace negotiations and indications are that a definite break is not far off. The Russian government has demanded that the conference, which was to have been convened on January 4, be transferred to Stockholm and has protested against the German attitude regarding occupied territory. A resumption of the hostilities is not improbable should the Germans decline to meet the Russian demands.

Emperor William and the rulers of Germany apparently are aroused over the sudden change in the situation and the German and Austrian foreign secretaries are reported hurrying back to Brest-Litovsk with new instructions. German military and political leaders conferred yesterday with the emperor and there is a widespread demand throughout Germany that the reichstag be convened immediately.

Reichstag leaders at a conference with Foreign Secretary von Kuehlmann discussed the situation and the leaders of the regular and Independent-Socialists are reported to have expressed dissatisfaction with the German attitude concerning occupied territory.

A breaking off in peace negotiations probably will upset all German plans to press a formidable attack on the western front. Confidence is expressed in Petrograd that the Russian government might put an army of 3,000,000 men in the field and the Bolshevik Red Guard, made up of armed Russian workmen already has started toward the western front. A complete break undoubtedly would compel the Germans to return to the eastern front where the troops they have taken away within the past six weeks and would make it impossible for the Germans to renew trade relations with Russia in order to obtain much-needed foodstuffs.

Snow and inclement weather are holding in check any large scale operations on the western and Italian fronts. British and Italians continue to repulse enemy raids at various points, while the German artillery bombardment in the Ypres and Verdun sectors still is very strong.

Increased loss of merchantmen is shown in the current British and French reports. Through mines and submarines the British lost 21 vessels, including 18 of more than 1600 tons, or nine more than the previous week when 12, including 11 of the larger tonnage, were sunk.

French losses were nine steamers of more than 1600 tons, as compared with two in the various weeks.

December shipping losses were but slightly higher than those in November, which established a low record. Submarine sinkings, also, are said to have been more common in December than in any previous month, being greater than the number the Germans probably were able to build. The severe weather conditions are believed to have added to the effectiveness of the submarine in that it compelled the enemy to operate closer together and nearer to shore. This fact may account in part for the increase in the number of boats caught by the allied fleets.

Great Britain will put a system of compulsory rationing into effect as soon as the British cabinet sanctions a plan worked out by the food controller. It was officially announced today. Voluntary rationing under government suggestion has been in effect for some time. The adoption of the new system is in line with policy announced in the report of the American mission to Europe given out in Washington yesterday. It is stated that Great Britain together with France and Italy had agreed to put into effect "a legalized and compulsory control of food stuffs."

SOCIALIST LEADERS WERE OUTSPOKEN IN JOINT CONFERENCE

(Associated Press Telegram)

London, Jan. 3.—The situation created by the hitch in the Brest-Litovsk negotiations, dispatches from Amsterdam reflecting news from Berlin show, has aroused the activities of the rulers and politicians of Germany and Austria-Hungary.

Emperor William yesterday received in joint audience Chancellor von Hertling, Field Marshal von Hindenburg, General von Ludendorff, Finance Minister von Roedern, and Foreign Secretary von Kuehlmann. Chancellor von Hertling had a long conversation with Admiral von Tirpitz, the former minister of marine, and Emperor Charles received in audience Prof. Kucharski, the Polish premier.

Leaders of all parties were present at the conference according to information in Amsterdam, and they informed Dr. von Kuehlmann that they adhered strongly to the demand that the reichstag be summoned as speedily as possible. It is expected that the demand will be discussed at Thursday's session of the reichstag main committee, which Chancellor von Hertling will attend.

The feature of the conference is said to have been the outspoken speeches of Philip Scheidemann and Friedrich Ebert, for the official Socialists, and Hugo Haase for the Independent-Socialists. They are credited with having told von Kuehlmann that his attitude in the Russian negotiations was prejudicial to peace. They told him that to say one day that Germany wanted no Russian territory and to say next day that it wanted virtually all territory occupied by German troops, justified extreme statements in declining to place confidence in the word of Germany's leaders.

It is reported that both von Kuehlmann and Count Czernin, the Austro-Hungarian foreign secretary, returned to Brest-Litovsk where they were expected to arrive yesterday with new instructions.

(Associated Press Telegram)

Cleveland, Jan. 3.—According to word received here today F. C. Baird, former head of the lake coal shipment, will not be included in an organization being formed to handle further shipments of fuel. It is said Baird will be dropped from the organization because of friction between himself and National Fuel Administrator Garfield and State Fuel Administrator Johnson.

RUSSIANS WILL NOT CONSENT TO THE PROPOSALS

Hypocritical Peace Proposals Scathingly Denounced

WANT PEACE DELEGATES TO MEET ON NEUTRAL SOIL

Bolsheviks and Peace Advocates Declare Resumption of Hostilities is Imminent

(Associated Press Telegram)

Petrograd, Jan. 3.—The Bolshevik foreign minister, Leon Trotsky declared today that the government of the Russian workers would not consent to the German peace proposals.

M. Trotsky's declaration was made before the central committee of the council of soldiers and workmen's delegates, during an address in which he denounced in scathing terms "Germany's hypocritical peace proposal."

Asserting that the government of Russian workers would not consent to such conditions, he said that if the central powers did not agree to free disposal of the destiny of the Polish and Lithuanian nations it would be urgently necessary to defend the Russian revolution. He said the needs of this front would be satisfied whatever efforts might be necessary. Representatives from all the fronts who attended the meeting declared the workers would defend the revolution, but said bread and boots were necessary.

The Russian peace delegation officially has suggested to the central powers that the meeting place of the peace delegates be transferred to neutral soil, and has protested against certain articles in the Austro-German terms already submitted.

The halt in the Russo-German negotiations and indications of a German refusal to move the conference to Stockholm have revived universal discussion in Petrograd of a resumption of fighting with a greatly reduced army, probably 3,000,000 men.

Even the most ardent peace advocates and the most ardent peace advocates have been aroused by the German position. They declare that a resumption of hostilities is imminent and express the belief that it is possible to organize and make effective a small army.

Indications are that the German attitude is harmonizing domestic differences and is convincing Russians that they must fight to save their revolutionary principles.

Chairman Joffe of the Russian peace delegation, today sent an official telegram to the chairman of the German-Austrian-Bulgarian-Turkish delegations, saying the Russian republic deems it necessary to conduct further peace negotiations on neutral soil and suggesting a transfer of the conference to Stockholm. The telegram declares that replies to the message are expected by Russia in Petrograd.

Articles 1 and 2 of the Austro-German terms submitted Dec. 12 (Dec. 25 new style) the message says, are in direct conflict with the principles of self definition of nations insisted upon by the Russian peace delegation and supported by the Russian republic and the central executive committee of the workmen's and soldiers' delegates.

Articles 1 and 2 of the Austro-German terms as cabled under a Brest-Litovsk date by way of Berlin last Sunday covered the ending of a state of war and evacuation of occupied territory. In article 2, however, it was declared that the people of Poland, Lithuania, Courland and portions of Estonia and Livonia demand independence and separation from Russia, and that the

EXPERT SAYS CANCER IS ON THE INCREASE

(Associated Press Telegram)

Piqua, Jan. 3.—Defining the "No Man's Land" among the Alling, which was his topic, as that neglected field between medication by mouth and drugs and surgical procedure, Dr. James M. Rector of Columbus, speaking before the Miami Valley Medical Association here today called attention to the extraordinary increase in cancer in the last few years.

According to Dr. Rector, cancer has increased 200 per cent. in the last ten years. In some sections of the United States as many as two persons out of every 1,000 are affected by it, he said. At the present time, there are 350,000 cancer patients in the United States and leading authorities have estimated that 25,000,000 persons in the world are destined to die from this scourge, the speaker declared.

Dr. Rector advanced the theory that a very large proportion of cancer might be due to the undue retention of food in the digestive tract, and advocated a mechanical cleansing of the elementary canal by washings.

AIM TO TAKE ONLY SINGLE MEN FOR ARMY

Provost Marshal Reports to Congress On Progress of Draft

ESTIMATES ONE MILLION MEN WILL BE AVAILABLE

If More Selects Needed Men Becoming of Age Since June 5 to Be Added

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, Jan. 3.—Provost Marshal General Crowder, reporting to congress today on the progress of the draft, expresses for the first time a definite promise and aim of the government not to take for army duty any other men than those listed in Class one of the new draft questionnaire.

This classification, excludes married men entirely, whose wives or families are dependent on them for support, and other men with dependents. General Crowder does this on the estimate that 1,000,000 men physically fit for army duty will be available from Class One. This number he thinks sufficient for the present military needs of the nation, but to assure the future supply for those needs he recommends that men who have become 21 years of age since June 5, 1917 (the first draft) and who became of age hereafter shall be added to Class one as they become available. This will insure, the general estimated, a supply of 700,000 men a year.

General Crowder outlines the new policy in this language:

"Whether this mass (1,000,000 available men) be justified in practice or not, it can be announced now as the policy and belief of this office that in all probability it will be possible to fill our military needs without invading any class more deferred than class one and this is the promise, the standard and the goal, here for the first time announced, toward which every administrative effort of this office shall be directed."

AUSTRIANS CHEER FRENCH CAPTORS AFTER A BATTLE

(Associated Press Telegram)

Italian Headquarters in Northern Italy, Wednesday, Jan. 2.—(By The Associated Press).—The French in their recent successful operation on Monte Tomba captured more prisoners than they had men engaged, according to a veteran officer who witnessed the fighting. From the top of a nearby hill he saw the French attack and afterwards saw the prisoners, guns and booty brought in.

"It was a record making fight in many respects," he declared. "Just think, the French took more prisoners than they had men engaged, which is among the records in military annals. They also captured their first Austrian prisoners, which is another milestone for them as heretofore they had captured only Germans."

In addition to the 1400 prisoners we counted 560 dead on the ground and no one knows how many were in the caverns and under bushes. The French military system enabled them to accomplish this with insignificant loss—less than fifty men. The Fifth Austrian Division which was the one attacked, is considered a good fighting organization. But the Austrians were accustomed to fighting Russians and Rumanians and this was the first time they had met the highly trained French troops. The result was that rawness and indiscipline were swept away before discipline and training.

"When the prisoners were brought in I never saw a more miserable, pitiful, starved lot of soldiers. They looked like the riff raff from the slums of some big city. Even the officers appeared underfed and under clothed, and I saw only one with a whole pair of breeches."

"When the officers were lined up there were 42 Austrians and two Germans. The Austrians were told they would receive the usual treatment given officers and gentlemen but the two Germans were told exactly that they would receive exactly the same treatment given French officers in Germany. The group of Austrian officers were impressed greatly at this and openly declared their hatred of the Germans. A little later we heard the Austrian soldiers cheering and it turned out that they were cheering their French captors."

"The success shows the necessity for trained troops, as untrained troops could not possibly have secured such results. It was exactly the same as getting 15 per cent. on your money instead of two per cent."

"The spirit and enthusiasm of the French troops as they leaped into the enemy trenches is beyond all praise. Their enthusiasm not only carried them into the trenches but actually far beyond them. Some detachments kept on going until they reached the upper Piave back of the enemy lines. But it was beyond the objective sought and would have necessitated reorganizing defenses, so the impetuous detachments were ordered to retire. But it showed what enthusiasm can do in forcing a wedge straight through the Austrian lines."

LABOR LEADERS IN CONFERENCE WITH OFFICIALS

Heads of Railway Brotherhoods Will Agree On Management

CONGESTION OF YARDS IS BEING CLEARED UP

Coal Shipments Are Moving Rapidly and Arrangements Are Under Way For Pooling

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, Jan. 3.—After a three-hour conference today with heads of the four railway brotherhoods, Director General McAdoo said that some definite agreement on all relations of railroad labor to the government management would be made soon. The conference will continue.

The brotherhood chiefs assured the director general of the co-operation of their unions and it was said there was no danger whatever of a strike. Details of the brotherhoods' demands on railway managements before the government assumed control, included a 40 per cent wage increase, were discussed at length and will be gone into further at the conference tomorrow.

Some readjustment of wages and probably a general increase is considered probable, although Mr. McAdoo said that no basis of any such action had yet been determined.

A general readjustment of passenger schedules involving general curtailment of traffic is now considered certain. The question was discussed today between Director General McAdoo and passenger traffic representatives of eastern roads. Later, the question was referred to the advisory council which will report recommendations to Mr. McAdoo probably tomorrow.

Washington, Jan. 3.—Railroad labor and finance questions engaged the attention of Director General McAdoo and his staff today, along with the movement of coal to New England and the east.

Heads of the four railway brotherhoods were called into conference to discuss the general employment situation under government operation. Although the union chiefs had no intention of pressing their demands for forty per cent. higher pay at this time, it is understood their case will be taken up along with many other wage matters as soon as the railroad administration has disposed of the more pressing transportation problem.

John Skenton Williams, comptroller of the currency, and the director general's advisor on railroad financial questions, discussed with Mr. McAdoo the situation which will develop soon when railroad companies' bonds and other obligations fall due. A plan will be worked out by which the debts may be either refunded with other securities which the government may buy with funds already reserved for the purpose.

Since Director General McAdoo became head of a unified and government controlled railroad system a week ago the main tangible result has been the acceleration of coal shipments, and a beginning of the clearing up of congestion in railroad yards by abolition of all priority orders. Surveys also are under way looking to a practical pooling arrangement.

Legal advisers of the director general framed legislation to guarantee average pre-war earnings and to provide otherwise for government financial assistance to be introduced after President Wilson addresses congress Friday. Government compensation will start from Jan. 1. Western and southern roads have been notified that they will be called on to furnish locomotives and equipment and possibly employes to assist in clearing the eastern congestion?

FIFTY PER CENT. OF CHICAGO TRAINS TO BE ELIMINATED

(Associated Press Telegram)

Chicago, Jan. 3.—Approximately 50 per cent of passenger trains operating west, northwest and southwest of Chicago will be eliminated, if tentative plans made by railroad committees are put into effect. It was announced today. Definite announcement as to what course the railroads will take will be made known in a few days, it was said.

R. L. Winchel, director of traffic of the Union Pacific railroad, and chairman of the committee on passenger train reduction, said that withdrawals of trains had been tentatively decided upon. Some trains will be taken off at once, he said, while others will not be withdrawn until the end of the California tourist season.

Every western road will change its passenger schedule starting January 23, R. H. Ashton, president of the Chicago & Northwestern, and chairman of the special railroad committee on national defense, said.

OFFENDERS ARE GIVEN FINES IN POLICE COURT

After treading the straight and narrow path for several months, Mrs. Carpenter, an aged artist, was found buried in a snow drift near the Montgomery lumber yard in East Newark on Wednesday.

She dropped off the water wagon and was picked up by the patrol and slated with intoxication in the mayor's court this morning. A fine of $5 and costs will keep her warm at the county jail for a while.

Howard Coventry of East Liberty was fined $5 and costs, which he paid, on charge of intoxication, and William Weakley, who gave his occupation as a plumber was fined $5 and costs for being drunk and destroying property. He was arrested on the charge of his wife. Several other drunks drew fines of $5 and costs.

As a outcome of an altercation Martha Houck called at the mayor's office this morning and plead guilty to assaulting Florence Bergin. The two women were passing each other on the street, when it is alleged Martha Houck pushed the Bergin woman out of the way and struck her with a milk bottle.

NEWARK SOLDIER WILL UNDERGO AN OPERATION TODAY

William Butler of Eddy street was called to Camp Sherman, Chillicothe at midnight Wednesday by a telegram which stated that his son August P. Butler, would undergo an operation for appendicitis this morning. Private Butler who was home on a Christmas furlough was taken ill while here, the officers at camp were notified and extended his leave 24 hours. As soon as he was able he returned to the camp, being forced to stop enroute in Columbus by another attack, but reached Camp Sherman late Monday evening.

Mr. Butler left at midnight for Camp Sherman to be with his son.

Word was received shortly after noon today, that the operation had been successful and that Mr. Butler's condition was favorable.

BAYLICK HELD BY OFFICERS FOR MARION SHOOTING

Chief Sheridan, and Officers Hurlough and Mercer made an arrest of Jesse Baylick, colored, alias John Smith, at the home of this sweetheart in Monroe street yesterday. Baylick is wanted by the sheriff of Marion county for shooting a man there Christmas Day.

Sheriff A. M. Glover of Marion county asked Chief Sheridan to locate his man. He stated he thought he had come to Newark to stay at the home of Lizzie Elder, known as "Sawyer," and that she lived in Monroe street. He said Baylick was about 25 years old, and that he wore a brown suit and barred mackinaw. The local department watched the Monroe street home and found their man. He is being held until an official comes from Marion county for him today.

CIVIC SLACKERS.

One of the handicaps to community development is the number of people who refuse to take any positive position on anything for fear of making any enemies. There are instances of this type in Newark as well as everywhere else. These are people who on being asked to take a stand in behalf of good, or civic betterment, will not do so for fear it may offend someone. A business or professional man may fear lest he displeases his employer.

How frequently you hear a man say: "Yes, yes, I agree with you perfectly. It is all wrong to let things go that way. But a man in my line, you know, can't come out strong on such questions or he would lose business."

Few persons ever lose a dollar by a self-respecting advocacy of things they believe in. The people admire a fearless man who expresses his opinion good-naturedly and with some confidence. They hang around to see what such a man will say. If his business is one dependent on local favor, he really gains by his outspoken course, provided that he is decent and gentlemanly in expressing his ideas.

It is just as much a duty to stand up for all good local causes and all forms of civic betterment, as to support the government in the war. There are a hundred issues that come up in the course of a year, on which all good citizens should express themselves freely, from mending a road and the removal of eyesores, to the checking of inefficient methods in local government. Insofar as we lie down and let people put things over on us, we shall make but slow advance as a community. If we speak up and express our minds, we shall make steady progress and no one will lose by it.

THE ARMY'S HEALTH.

To many of our boys at the army camps, the minute-health regulations will seem fussy and old-maidish. Fellows that come from unsanitary workshops and careless homes will not know what to make of these rules. They have been used to drinking out of the same cups with all their fellow-workmen, healthy or diseased. One roller-towel would do for 50 men.

Under the army sanitary rules, they will find they must not drink from any water supply until same has been analyzed and sanctioned. The common drinking cup won't be allowed. They will have to keep all drinking water tightly covered to prevent infection. If water contains impurities, it will have to be sterilized by chemicals.

Kitchen and mess halls will have to be scrupulously clean. The cook house boys that used to work in restaurants in this country won't know where they are. Methods that would go in a good hotel won't do for the army. Files will have to be killed, food kept protected from insects, and purchase of food from irresponsible vendors will not be allowed.

There will be a general tendency for the boys to scoff at these regulations. They should take them very seriously. The army doctors know just how disease gets started. They know how tuberculosis got such a hold on the French army, and they know how it was kept out of the English army.

Except for those wounded, our army life can be made even more healthful than ordinary home-conditions. But it will take strict discipline, and hearty co-operation from the men. Each sanitary rule should be carefully adhered to. The German spies have a record already established for contaminating water supplies and spreading disease germs. But the agencies of nature provide plenty of means for transmitting disease unless watchful care is maintained.

HAUL LOAD EACH WAY.

War demands require that every American be both loyal and efficient. Inefficiency in a time like this stamps one as a traitor. Most people spend half their time getting ready to work, or having other people do what they might do themselves. For example: groceries and small packages could just as well be carried home, thus saving money and delivery men who could be more profitably employed elsewhere. The farmer hauls his potatoes and other crops to town during the fall and winter, and drives home with the empty wagon. In the spring when farm work starts, he drives in with an empty wagon, and hauls out lime, machinery, seeds and fertilizer. He might far better order these goods early and haul them home when he brings in his crops. In other words: haul a load each way and save one trip. All farm supplies such as machinery, lime, seeds and fertilizers should be ordered early and hauled home. If not ordered until spring, the railroads will be unable to ship them. A "load each way" means efficiency. Efficiency on your part means licked Germans.

The people who are kicking because "white way" lighting in the cities is cut off at 11 p. m., are the grandsons of those who used to come down town with a barn lantern to light up the dark spots.

The people who will complain bitterly of the high cost of clothing in about six months from now, are the same ones who don't take pains to read in The Advocate the ads. of clothing bargains still for sale.

The people who know too much to believe the explicit statements of the government and the newspapers, are usually the same ones who swallow all the fake yarns the German spies start.

You can't get any better goods by buying holiday stuff away from home, but you will be able to tell your friends that you helped build up other places than your hometown.

Some people can't see why the government will employ big business men at $1 a year, when there are so many politicians who have not been taken care of yet.

The kaiser is willing to take Belgium and give the allies a dollar, and if they don't like that, he will give them a dollar and he will take Belgium.

The church suppers used to provide 50 cents worth of food for 25 cents, and now they are expected to give $1 worth of food for 35 cents.

OLD YEAR AND THE NEW.

(Philadelphia Record.)

The year 1917 was the most momentous in the history of the United States since the acknowledgment of its independence. It introduced the young State into the family of nations. We do not even except the years of the opening or closing of the civil war, for the division of the country into two countries would probably have been overcame in time, and if it had been perpetuated, the influence of the two nations would only have been less than that of the Union.

The year just closed saw the United States become not merely potentially, but actively, a world-power. But in that development of the might and responsibilities of the United States there was not the slightest seeking for aggrandizement; there was no lust of conquest; there was no national pride or ambition. There was only a recognition of what the safety of the country demanded and what the preservation of civilization and the independence of all nations required.

What seemed at first to be merely a quarrel between Austria and Serbia, backed respectively by Germany and Russia, presently developed into a carefully planned and long cherished attempt by Germany to establish its domination over the world. "World domination or decline" was the alternative formulated by Bernhardi and adopted by Germany, from the Kaiser down to the Social Democrats.

At a later period it became apparent that the methods as well as the purposes of German war were a reversion to barbarism; that world-domination involved domination of the United States as well as of Europe and Asia; and we were forced into the fight by the alternative of resisting Germany or becoming its silent partner.

The Russian revolution also developed this into a war of democracy against autocracy, and such it remains in spite of the Russian collapse. But this collapse has changed the center of gravity of the political world. The result of this collapse is that the Great Powers of the world consist of America, Great Britain and France, and the greatest of these is America.

The year 1917 saw us take our place beside Great Britain and France to save civilization from barbarism and paganism and the Teutonic effort to re-establish the Roman Empire. Will 1918 see the end of the struggle? We believe that it will either see the end of it, or bring the world to so near an approach to it that the most pessimistic will not doubt an early victory for the right. We make no confident predictions. But three and a half years of war have brought Germany and Austria to a desperate condition, and with the reinforcement of Great Britain, France and Italy, the most powerful of all the belligerent nations, the Republic of the West there is far better reason to hope for the triumph of right, of peaceful forces, of the independence of the nations and of democracy before the end of 1918 than there is to fear an indefinite continuance of the Titanic struggle between the forces of light and freedom and peaceful aims and law and morals, and the combined Teutonic and Moslem forces of evil.

We hail 1918 with high hopes and with the most perfect confidence.

PROBLEM OF JERUSALEM.

(The New Republic.)

The capture of Jerusalem by the British troops may or may not be of much military importance, but it is one of those successes which can be converted into a priceless gain for the victors. More than any other city in the world, Jerusalem possesses, both for Jews and Christians, a group of peculiarly sacred associations, which were at least neutralized by political supremacy of the Turks in Palestine. The permanent banishment of the Turks from the Holy Land and the Holy City would appeal vividly to the moral imagination of Christendom, and all people of Christian tradition would like to know whether the heathen are going to be restored and, if so, who favors their restoration. Do the Austrian Catholics favor it? Do the German Catholics? Do the German Protestants? These questions should be addressed publicly to Austrian and German public opinion by some conspicuous statesman of the allies, such as President Wilson or Lloyd George, and the answer would make interesting reading—more interesting even to Jews than to Christians. For Zionism has been gathering since the war began as a great social and religious movement. Its future depends upon the future occupation of Palestine by the Jew—upon a new and permanent return of the Jews to Jerusalem. If German and Austrian Christians and Jews propose to defeat this consummation and will insist upon the possession of Palestine by the Turk, their fellow-believers in other lands would like to know it.

NOT WEAKLINGS.

(New York World.)

Because 20 to 70 per cent of men examined for the national army are rejected, and unsuspected illnesses are often revealed, Prof. Irving Fisher draws melancholy conclusions for the American Economic Association. He compares us especially with France, where the "per centage has averaged 30 per cent for more than 100 years."

This contrast might be more disturbing if army tests of physique were uniform. Great Britain and the United States, with comparatively small volunteer armies hitherto, have maintained much higher standards than continental powers that relied upon universal compulsory service.

Nor is the standard in any country unchanged from year to year. Germany is recruiting men who would not have been accepted in 1914. Great Britain began with an exciting height standard, actually raised it when volunteers poured in faster than the war office could handle them—and later enlisted "bantam regiments."

Comments from "over there" picture the first American troops as a body of giants, by no means as material culled from a feeble population. The quartermaster's department has found, in ordering uniforms and shoes, that the national army men average bigger than the old regulars, and in the field they prove husky and enduring. Dr. Quayle is confident that most of the rejected men could easily be rehabilitated physically, and has submitted a comprehensive plan. We need not fear that Americans are a race of weaklings.

EFFECTS OF RAILROAD CONGESTION.

(Washington Post.)

How intimate and vital is the relationship of the battle front in France with the transportation system in the interior of the United States is shown by the situation now existing in the port of New York. Surely the American public has not forgotten how the confidence of the entente powers was shaken when the German submarine campaign reached its high water mark last spring. In one month England lost 550,000 gross tons of shipping. The situation was considered so serious that the British premier said that victory depended upon one thing—ships, ships and again ships. How vitally important, therefore, must we consider the tying up of 1,000,000 gross tons of shipping in New York harbor alone. It is reported that that amount of shipping is held in New York harbor today because of the one fact that the railroads of the United States have been unable to deliver enough coal to enable them to leave.

Of these ships twenty-two have been held at New York from lack of coal since November 24—more than a month. Four of these twenty-two ships are engaged solely in the transportation of ammunition to the French armies. Other of the ships are transport vessels in the service of the United States shipping board, directly dependent upon to supply the fighting forces abroad, while practically all of them carry coal, which is an important influence upon the conduct of military operations against Germany.

Thus it is clear that the coal shortage, in this respect, is seriously cutting down the strength of the armed forces opposing Germany, and for this, we are told, the transportation system is responsible.

DIRECTOR M'ADOO.

(New York Sun.)

We believe that the President's choice of Mr. McAdoo as Railroad Administrator during the period of financial control and operation by the Government of the entire land transportation system of the country will not only be welcomed by the vast interests directly concerned, but also commend itself to the good sense of the people generally. The appointment ought to be reassuring; it puts ascertained qualities, undoubted ability and recognized experience in a place of the greatest possible importance for a work of supreme difficulty and delicacy, wherein the introduction of an unknown factor of personality would mean an uncertainty productive of mischief immeasurable.

The proclamation published this morning begins the most stupendous experiment in Government railroad operation ever undertaken; the broadest expansion of executive authority over civilian business in the history of the Republic. With the legal co-operation of both capital and labor, with wise employment of the personnel already existing and with considerable treatment of the property interests involved the unification of the American railroads under a Government director ought to be effected with a minimum of financial disturbance. The necessity of this momentous step is already apparent.

WHAT WE ARE FIGHTING.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)

It has become a truism that America is in this war to assist in the downfall of autocracy. But like most truisms, this one has been repeated so often that its meaning has become dulled. A plain statement, by itself, of what manner of thing this autocracy is against which democracy is struggling may serve to bring the issue more squarely before us.

A suit has recently been brought in the state of Missouri by the kaiser (as king of Prussia) against one Kuepper, who was claimed to be an embezzling German postmaster. The attorney for the king of Prussia filed the declaration for the plaintiff, which opens as follows: "The plaintiff states that he is a monarch of the kingdom of Prussia, and as king thereof is the sole government of that country, that he is unrestrained by any constitution or law, and that his will, expressed in due form, is the only legal power there known to exist as law."

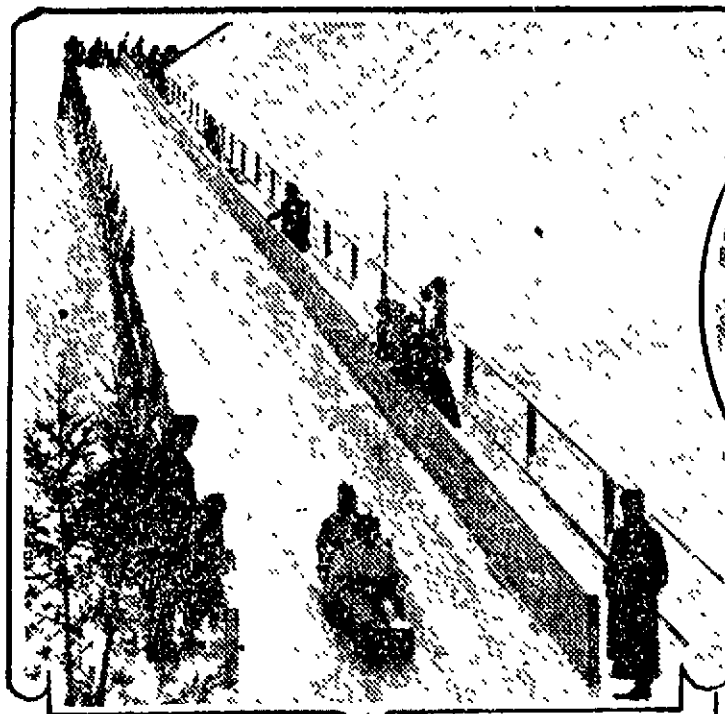

That makes it plain. There is no law in Prussia except the will of Wilhelm. That will defines itself as law and makes the law define itself as that will. And it is that monstrous thing that seeks to make itself the master of the world. It is a thing strange that the principle of democracy could have consented to exist so long on the same planet with such a diametrically opposed principle. And that such a "law" can impose itself on a free people or on any people, must be unthinkable.

JOURNEY OF ARCTURUS.

(Vancouver Sun.)

When you look up on a clear night, you see one star flash brighter than the rest in the northern sky. In a sky powdered with stars, Arcturus is conspicuous by his size. Arcturus was of the stars mentioned in the first treatises on astronomy. The earliest star maps featured him. To the human eye he has never moved in the sky; he is what we call a fixed star. He was one of the planets early navigators steered by when they adventured out of sight of land. The first human wanderers on land used him as a guide. The first men on the earth crept from their caves on clear nights to worship Arcturus. To us he looks the same as he did to them. It is of interest to reflect, how-

CANADIANS—YOUNG AND OLD—NOW WELCOME WINTER SPORTS

TOBOGGAN SLIDE FROM QUEBEC CITADEL

CURLING

START OF A BOB-SLED RACE

There is a hustling and bustling across our northern border these days. It is in preparation of the coming of the Winter Sports season. Young and old are busily engaged in overhauling skates, skis, sleds, sleighs and snowshoes; inspecting hockey sticks and lacrosse racquets; wondering if last year's brightly colored sport outfit will stand another season's wear. Wartime urges this economy.

Winter months do not spell close housing for Canadians. Quite the contrary! Every possible hour is spent in the open in the pursuit of some popular sport. This outdoor life results in rosy cheeks, happy spirits and rugged health. No particular locality has a monopoly on these sports, nor is the season a brief one. From first fall of snow until skates and sleds go into retirement because of disappearance of ice, you will find Canadians enjoying outdoor recreations.

Americans who visit Quebec in winter time are astonished at the popularity of the famous three-track toboggan slide on Dufferin Terrace overlooking Lower Town and the mighty St. Lawrence. All day long and late into night toboggans may be seen gliding from the Citadel Heights, past turreted Chateau Frontenac and on down the Terrace at a forty-mile-a-minute clip.

Banff in the Canadian Rockies, is known far and wide as a summer playground whither thousands annually wend their ways. No indeed! The transcontinental traveler who drops off there in winter will find her very much alive and indulging in every known winter sport. He may take his choice of unrivalled skating rinks, toboggan slides, curling rinks, sliding routes, and what is to be found nowhere else on this continent, outdoor bathing pools of warm water in which he may take a plunge in comfort while ringed about by snow and ice and envious fur-clad spectators. If you doubt this, drop off and see for yourself.

GRANVILLE

(Special to The Advocate.)
Granville, Jan. 3.—Heavy snow falls the earth in purest white Tuesday in finest parties. The mercury sank out of sight on Saturday making next year's peach again a negligible expectation. Activity is almost at a standstill for the most part heaped to family reunions and parties.
Taking into this apathy, the year's reception given by the F. W. at headquarters, furnished a welcome relief, and immediately showed the resourcefulness of a woman who kept the needles during all the quiet bustle of the year. The ways and means with Mrs. Odebrecht at a standstill for the most part heaped to family reunions and parties.
Two beautifully equipped tables in the large central room resided over in turn by Helen and Frances Ray, Josephine Darrow, Frances Martha Lord, Florence and E. Carney. Coffee and assorted sweets were passed by Mrs. E. Carney, Mrs. Darrow, Mrs. Clemens, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. McCullom, Mrs. Burton, Case, coffee pot was kept filled by Herbert Norris. The artistic decorations of the rooms with flags, and Red Cross insignia, a work of Mrs. Mary Dundy, sketched into which were dropped ever offerings, was held in Mary Frances Denning, little Jones, and Margaret Lucas, and daughter of Mrs. Marjorie Alderman. A score or so of guests and professional men, between the hours of 2 and 5, unusually large number of guests, the occasion.
The daughters brought in an of one comforter, 4 comfort 182 paraffin torches; the district an assortment of 32. The earnings amounted to $20 for the A. P. F. W. and the Red Cross, while the "fishes" heard on every hand no less valuable asset to the party.
A number of young people watched year out and the new year home of Prof. and Mrs. Ray on the Newark road. The dancing furnished occasion to some twenty guests, whom were noted: Miss Lord, Miss Wright, Colum, Mrs. Byron Ashbrook, John, Miss Josephine Darrow, Frances Jones, Dorothy Mary Wright, Martha Wright, Edmonson, Marjorie Law, the Walker, Newark; Messrs. ## OBITUARY

Memorial Sermon Preached.
At 2 o'clock, Wednesday, at the Second Baptist church, the funeral services of Mrs. Josephine Gomer-dinger were conducted. The pastor, Rev. A. H. Cowley, preached the sermon. This was the request of the deceased. Last winter during revival meetings she accepted Christ. "Around the little white cot in the City hospital I saw more of heaven than ever before in my life. The theme of her life was Jesus only. Her death was the crowning of a wonderful life. Though suffering intense pain she looked up and said that she was falling asleep in the arms of Jesus. Never before have I seen such wonderful faith. Fear was absent, and she in her last moments sang 'Tis So Sweet to Trust in Jesus,' and other hymns."
"Before she passed away she asked the doctor and nurse if they were Christians and had her own people promise to follow Christ, commending the little girl to Christ."
The preacher concluded by saying that when he should go he wanted to go as she did—trusting, praying, resting, rejoicing—swept into the presence of the King.
The church was crowded, which showed the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

KRESGE CLERK FINDS DIAMOND IN STORE TODAY

White walking in the Annex of the Kresge Five and Ten Cent store this morning, Miss Eva Harter, in charge of the notion department, saw a small box lying upon the floor and upon picking it up was amazed to find a beautiful diamond ring and a plain gold ring. Hurrying to the manager's office she told of the find and a half hour later a woman called at the store to inquire whether a diamond ring had been found. She described the ring and it was turned over to her. The owner promised to send Miss Harter a cash gift for her honesty.

"The finding of these rings reminds me," said Miss Harter, "of the time I found a pocketbook in the Kresge store. I've been here about four years. The pocketbook which was worth at least $10, contained $39.75 in cash. I reported the discovery to the manager and in just a little while the owner appeared and I turned it over to her."
"And what did you get?" was asked of Miss Harter.
"What did I get?" the young woman repeated. "Why, I got a pleasant look and one word. 'Thanks.'"

Dandruff Scalps Lead to Baldness

If you have dandruff get rid of it quickly—it's positively dangerous and will surely ruin your hair if you don't.
Dandruff means faded, brittle, gray,
scraggly hair that finally dies and falls
out—they hair will not grow—then you are bald and nothing can help you.

The only sure way to abolish dandruff for good is to destroy the germ that causes it. To do this quickly, surely and safely there is nothing so effective as Parisian sage, which you can get from any good druggist. It is guaranteed to cure dandruff, stop itching scalp and falling hair, and promote a new growth, or the cost, small as it is,
will be refunded.

Parisian sage is a scientific preparation that supplies all hair needs—an antiseptic liquid, neither sticky or greasy, easy to apply, and delicately perfumed.

If you want beautiful, soft, thick, lustrous hair, and lots of it, you must use Parisian sage. Don't delay—begin tonight—a little attention now insures abundant hair for years to come.

WHOLE KUTZ FAMILY IN ARMY FOR UNCLE SAM

The whole Kutz family is now working for Uncle Sam. The two boys are in the artillery service.
Harry P. Kutz, the father, formerly in the Newark Natural Gas office
here as bookkeeper, is about to enter the quartermaster's department, and the boys' mother and sister are expecting soon to become Red Cross nurses. The Advocate today received the following letter from George Kutz, who is now at Macon,
Georgia:

Editor of the Advocate:—I received your letter today. My brother is from Licking county. His name is Carl Kutz, address Battery C, 14th Field Artillery, Fort Sill, Okla., U. S.
Army regulars. My father is Harry P. Kutz, and he, too, is going into the army in the Q. M. department.
He expects to be called out any day.
I also have several cousins from Pittsburgh in the army, also one from Newark, Charles W. Miller, who was made major at training camp. I am expecting to leave for training camp any time myself. So you see about all the men from our family are in the army and my mother and sister expect to receive appointments soon as Red Cross nurses. Well, I must close for this time, so goodbye.

George Kutz,
M. S., 8th F. A. Camp, Wheeler, Macon, Ga., U. S. Army Regulars.

Captain Was Young Woman.

There was, in the early days of the last century, a certain Captain Alexan-drov, attached to the Russian Royal Uhlans. The captain's name was really Nadeshda Durova, and "he" was a young woman who, at the age of sixteen, had enlisted in a Cossack regiment. Nadeshda fought at Gustadt in 1807, where she routed a party of French dragons, and carried a wounded officer away on her horse. She was wounded at Smolensk and Borodino, and took part in the harrying of the grand army in its retreat from Moscow. The Russian emperor, Alexander, was privy to the secret of her sex, and it was by his instructions that she was always treated at court as captain in the Royal Uhlans. Nadeshda retired from military service at the age of twenty-five, and assumed the role,
more appropriate to her sex, of a writer of romances.

A Leaking Faucet.

When the faucets in the bathroom or kitchen leak or do not allow the water to flow freely they need a new washer, and the washers cost five cents each. To put on the washer, turn off the water, the rod is usually under the sink or in the basement, and unscrew the faucet; take off the worn-out washer and slip on a new one and turn your water on again and presto!
the work is done and no repair bill to pay.

War-time prices in the stock market certainly prove that there is plenty of room at the top.

When a fellow sees snakes in his loots it doesn't do him much good to yell for a sherry cobbler.

CONGESTION ON THE B. & O. SYSTEM IS BEING CLEARED UP

O. C. Parrill, freight agent of the Pennsylvania Lines, said this morning that there had been no orders received from the government in regards to a general freight embargo,
and with the exception of the limited embargo that has been in effect for some time, freight conditions remained unchanged.

The situation at the B. & O., according to Freight Agent C. R. Potter, is that the embargo was general over the entire Newark division, and that nothing was being received, but the incoming freight was being delivered as quickly as possible and the congestion was gradually being cleared.
As to the length of time the embargo would cover he was unable to state.

German occupation of Russian territory did not apply to these districts which include most of the Russian territory captured by the Germans.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

London, Jan. 3.—Petrograd dispatches indicate that differences developed at the first meeting there of the Russian German commissioners for the discussion of economic relations. The Germans desired to reach an understanding with the Russians regarding regulation of railroad transit between the two countries. The Russian delegates strongly emphasized their unwillingness to go beyond the lines indicated in the armistice and refused to fix regulations without precise definition as what classes of persons and goods the railroads were to carry.

The Bolshevik foreign minister,
Leon Trotsky, is quoted in an interview as having said that the commission which is discussing prisoners were taking up only the question of civilian and invalid war prisoners.
He said the exchange of able-bodied war prisoners could be undertaken
only after the signing of peace.

A Petrograd dispatch to the Post says a very large proportion of the German war prisoners and a still larger portion of the Austrians will return to their fighting fronts only under compulsion. They have not been confined in prison camps but have lived among the people and everywhere have proved their worth in agricultural, industrial, commercial and even artistic pursuits. Many of them are getting on better than they did at home and are more than contented to remain in Russia.

Furthermore, it is impossible, the dispatch says, that Germany desires the return from Russia of a majority of her war prisoners. She will get back the officers and non-commissioned officers in any case and many of them already have returned. But for both Germany and Austria, the dispatch continues, it is a sounder policy to regard the rank and file of these men as the advance guard of commercial conquest.

Y. W. C. A. SUSPENDS OWING TO LACK OF SUFFICIENT FUNDS

The first of January marked the suspension of the activities of the Y. W. C. A. as an organization. Supported by popular subscription and membership campaigns alone, the great demand made by the war on popular support, caused the directors to abandon the hope of securing funds sufficient to maintain the institution.

Mrs. Frank L. Johnson has been acting secretary and it was determined to discontinue the association for the present time. The building closed the first of the year, and a sale is being held or equipment and furnishings. All that is not disposed of will be stored with the hope that a readjustment of national affairs will permit of a reorganization. While the association has some money which was intended for a building fund, this money will not be touched. If the association is reorganized the fund will be used for the purpose of building a new building. The association has filled a much felt want in the city and provided an excellent home for many young women who could not afford the better surroundings. The noon day lunches also became a popular innovation, and the various classes, social, physical and religious were ar-ways well attended. It is the hope of the promoters and organizers that this has not been written on their efforts.

OUR CONGRESSMAN MAY
SEND US A GOVERNMENT INSTRUMENT SOME DAY.

Thursday morning the mercury again
skipped down below the zero mark on the thermometers. As there is no official instrument in the city the reports on just how cold it was vary.
The regulated thermometer at the
J. C. Brown grocery, East Newark, showed six below at 8 o'clock. At other places where the exposure is greater it registered 10 below at the same hour. At 9:30 o'clock on the square thermometers stood at zero,
while there are reports of instruments registering as low as 18 below
at an early hour.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr.
Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings
under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per
box. All druggists.
